

Save the Date

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY EDUCATION AND SOCIAL JUSTICE CONFERENCE: A MULTIDISCIPLINARY ROAD MAP

Asa Philip
RANDOLPH

Virgil Darnell
HAWKINS

Harry L. & Harriette V.
MOORE

COMMEMORATING TRAILBLAZING B-CU ALUMNI

JUNE 24 - 26, 2018

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY · DAYTONA BEACH, FL

The theme of this year's conference is A Multidisciplinary Road Map and will include Education, Criminal Justice, Political Science, Psychology, Business and Entrepreneurship, Science, Health, Mass Communications and Technology.

Will provide solution-focused sessions on a variety of topics including:

- School Achievement & Discipline Disparities
- School Safety
- Judicial Sentencing Disparities
- Ethics
- Physical and Mental Health
- Media Representation
- Internet Availability and Use
- Environmental Health Disparities
- Economic & Wealth Disparities
- Law Enforcement & Community Relations

We are inviting all educators/school administrators, lawyers enforcement professionals, lawyers & judges, business professionals, healthcare professionals, media professionals, non-profit organizations, human & youth service professionals, politicians, community advocates and concerned citizens to be apart!